

Norm Clay joins Coastal Carolinas Association of REALTORS Executive Committee

Garden City Beach, SC – August 19, 2014 - Lee Hewitt, Broker-in-Charge of Garden City Realty, Inc., is pleased to announce that Norm Clay has been elected as an officer and member of the Coastal Carolinas Association of REALTORS executive committee.

At this month's REALTOR luncheon, held at Pawleys Plantation in Pawleys Island, Clay was recognized as the succeeding treasurer for the Coastal Carolinas Association of REALTORS executive committee. The appointment procedure began with an extensive interview process by the nominating committee, followed by candidate approval from the CCAR board of directors, and concluded with electoral votes of CCAR members.

"Norm is a valuable asset to Garden City Realty and his service to the board will only strengthen his credibility within the community and local real estate market. His desire to serve the board not only benefits the firm, but facilitates in supporting his committed reputation to the industry with fellow REALTORS," said Hewitt.

Originally from Dayton, Ohio, Clay was stationed in Myrtle Beach for four years while serving in the U.S. Air Force. He became active in real estate in 1998 and has been with Garden City Realty since 2001. Additionally, for the past twelve years he has traveled to the Agua Viva (Living Water) Children's Home in Chimaltenango, Guatemala, where he and his wife sponsor several girls, for mission work.

Clay is an active member of the National Association of REALTORS, the South Carolina Association of REALTORS, and the Coastal Carolina Association of REALTORS where he previously served a three-year term on the Board of Directors. He has earned the Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR) and the Real Estate Owned Specialist (REOS) designations, and received the Graduate REALTOR® Institute (GRI) designation. In addition, in 2011 he received Garden City Realty awards for Top Listing Transactions and Top Total Transactions. He is available at 843-652-4246.
