

Garden City Realty, Inc. voted Best Vacation Home Rental Company

Garden City Beach, SC – February 4, 2014 – Garden City Realty was voted best vacation home rental company in the visitors voice section of the 2013 Best of the Beach contest, a specialty publication of The Sun News.

This recognition marks the fifth year in a row that Garden City Realty placed in this category, taking first place in 2010 and 2009.

Voting for the annual Best of the Beach contest spanned two weeks at the end of August and into September. Winners were announced the first week of October. The visitor's voice section of the contest was created for non-subscribers, mainly tourists, who visit or live along the Grand Strand.

"We had just launched the redesign of our website, a major undertaking, when the winners were contacted. The good news couldn't have come at a better time." said Advertising and Marketing Director at Garden City Realty, Kimberly Raley-Kimes. "We are grateful to our guests and those in the community who voted for us."
