Garden City Beach, SC – February 16, 2018 – Lisa Valone, Sales and Relocation Coordinator with Garden City Realty, attended the Leading Real Estate Companies of the World® Annual Conference, held January 31-February 2 at Wynn Las Vegas. The conference was part of the Leading Real Estate Companies of the World® (LeadingRE) Conference Week, a series of educational and networking events that attracted an elite audience of nearly 3,000 real estate professionals from 24 countries.

The conference was open only to brokers, managers and relocation professionals affiliated with LeadingRE, an invitation-only network of the highest quality independent real estate companies. Attendees explored how to leverage the trends driving the real estate market, including the economic landscape, home technology and design, and consumer preferences.

An impressive lineup of keynote speakers included two-time World Series Champion, former Chicago Cubs player and first runner-up on ABC's Dancing with the Stars David Ross; award-winning journalist and noted host of On Second Thought for Georgia Public Broadcasting Celeste Headlee; renowned real estate speaker and author Darryl Davis and LeadingRE Chief Economist Dr. Marci Rossell. Additional thought leaders from across the industry were on hand to address a variety of timely topics, with a focus on ways to best meet the needs of today's home buyers and sellers.

"This conference was a wonderful opportunity to not only reconnect with many people within the network but make new connections as well. The educational sessions were invaluable, and I look forward to taking what I've learned and apply in my role as Garden City Realty's Relocation Coordinator." Said Valone.

"The caliber of attendees at our Annual Conference is exceptional – representing the best names in the real estate business," said LeadingRE President/CEO Pam O'Connor. "Having these leaders come together to exchange ideas, share insights and learn ways to be even better at what they do is incredibly powerful."
